

Conrad Siegel
ACTUARIES

The Employee Benefits Company

KEVIN A. ERB, F.S.A.

CONSULTING ACTUARY

kevinerb@conradsiegel.com

Expertise:

- Health care actuary
- Specialist in health care consulting and strategic benefits planning, from flexible benefit plans and managed care issues to traditional group benefits (medical, prescription drug, dental, vision, disability, life, paid-time-off, etc.)
- Works with private sector employers, some on a national scale, tax-exempt organizations, associations, state and local governments, and union groups.
- Proficient in overall benefit plan design strategy, employee cost-sharing, plan funding arrangements, administration and implementation of cafeteria plans, renewal rate negotiation, and claims experience analysis that includes claim projections and claim lag studies

Firm Participation:

- Chair, Management Committee
- Member, Health & Welfare Committee
- Joined Conrad Siegel Actuaries in 1992

Prior Experience:

- Worked in group benefits departments of two international consulting firms in southern California as a health care actuary

Educational Background:

- B.S. degree in electrical engineering technology, cum laude
University of Pittsburgh at Johnstown

Affiliations/Activities:

- Fellow of the Society of Actuaries
- Member of the American Academy of Actuaries
- Follow of the Conference of Consulting Actuaries