

Jon Sapochak Appointed Partner at Conrad Siegel Actuaries

Sapochak, FSA, Leads Employee Benefit Firm's Healthcare Reporting Services

Harrisburg, PA – June 28, 2017 – Conrad Siegel Actuaries, delivering comprehensive employee benefits services, announced today that Jon Sapochak, FSA, has been appointed a partner at the firm.

Sapochak, a consulting actuary, specializes in group health and welfare benefit plans for school district trusts, private sector employers, tax-exempt organizations, large associations, and Taft-Hartley health and welfare trusts. He serves as a member of Conrad Siegel's health and welfare line of business committee and plays an active role in business development.

“We are very proud to name Jon a partner,” said Rob Glus, partner and consulting actuary at Conrad Siegel Actuaries. “His initiative, vision and leadership have been essential assets to our health and welfare line of business and the firm overall. Jon has built strong, trusted relationships with clients, and in turn they rely on his expertise to guide them through the often-complicated process of analyzing and designing plans, rate calculations and insurance company contracting and rate negotiations.”

Most recently, Sapochak played a significant role as one of the core developers for Conrad Siegel's employer healthcare reporting service for the Affordable Care Act, which helps employers understand and accurately meet reporting requirements for the 1095 employer reporting form.

Prior to joining Conrad Siegel Actuaries in 2004, Sapochak earned his Bachelor of Science in Mathematics, Magna Cum Laude, from Clemson University. He is a Fellow of the Society of Actuaries (FSA), the profession's highest distinction, and a member of the American Academy of Actuaries.
